

Jaimi Andrews is a 17 year old Mandurah girl competing in the West Australian Water Ski Association (WAWSA) Tournament Division.

She achieved super results this summer – with several new Tournament Personal Bests under her belt – after taking time out to complete her TEE last year. With little training she still qualified for the Australian Junior Masters & Nationals – with strong finishes in both. At home she was a stand out, coming 3rd in the State Titles!

Jaimi is only a couple of buoys from qualifying for her Open Women's Rating. Once qualified, she will be competing amongst Oz's best known female skiers like Emma Shears, Karina Nowlan and Kathryn Humphrey.

Onwards & Upwards for 2010 Jaimi!
